Stamford, CT, The Loft Artists Gallery presents Oil Changes, a solo show presenting the bold, beautiful, dramatic oil paintings of loft artist Alan Judelson. This extraordinary exhibit of oil paintings, all 36” by 36” is a reflection of Judelson’s painting techniques and style which are bursting with energy and bold brush strokes. “I try to inject a certain energy into everything I do. Whether I beat up on a canvas with thinners, a blade and a scrub or lay down paint in a forceful manner, I never try to bore the viewer. For me, the painting process is a journey of discovery. Images develop and change as I explore the canvas. Surprises, totally unplanned happen, and I accept these new images gladly” says Alan Judelson.

The beauty of abstract artwork is that viewers can let their imaginations run wild. Alan encourages viewers to make an interpretation of their own. He calls himself “an explorer painter”. “If a viewer asks me what the title of a painting is I suggest they tell me what they think it ought to be. It works, and I am delighted” says Alan Judelson.

The Loft Artists invite you to view the striking works of Alan Judelson.
